Election/Restrictions

Claims 18-20 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 8/03/04.

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "interface detachably engaged to said container" must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). The drawings show the interface and the container but not how the interface is detachably engaged to the container. The claims also require first and second fitments, each fitment having an opening corresponding to the predetermined dimensions of the notch and that the perimeter of the openings of the first fitment is not equal to the perimeter of the second fitment. No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Regarding claim 8, it has not been adequately disclosed how the two fitments each have an opening which correspond to the predetermined dimensions of the notch and the perimeter of the openings are not equal to each other. The specification does not elaborate how this is possible. The remaining claims are included since they stem from rejected claims.

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Regarding claim 8, it has not been adequately disclosed how the two fitments each have an opening which correspond to the predetermined dimensions of the notch and the perimeter of the openings are not equal to each other. The specification does not elaborate how this is possible. It is not clear how each fitment can have an opening that corresponds to the predetermined dimensions where the perimeters of the openings are not equal. The two are not consistent with each other. If the openings in the each of fitments correspond, i.e. are equal to the predetermined dimensions of the notch, it is not clear how they can then have a perimeters that are not equal. The remaining claims are included since they stem from rejected claims. It is not clear what is being claimed. The remaining claims are included since they stem from rejected claims. The remaining claims are included since they stem from rejected claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lizard (US 2,721,674). Regarding claim 8-10, as they are best understood, Lizard teaches having two fitments with different size openings 28 and 30, and the fitments can be located in the openings of 13, which is the removable interface. Regarding claims 9 and 10, see Fig. 4.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 8-10 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

This is a non-final action due to the new grounds of rejection.
